Meet the Authors" was a huge Success
Fall 2006
Catahoula Cultural Center
What's Happening at the

Catahoula County Museum
A Memberships Drive

The welcoming floor (floor) and display (display)

100 YEARS OLD IN 2008
Catahoula County Will Be

If you're interested in learning more about the authors, you can contact the museum at 300 Main Street, Catahoula, LA 70723. For more information, visit our website at www.catahoula.com.
Nursing Home Rocks

Thank You, Dietrich Foundation
Sculpture Unveiling by Artist Zan Wolls

On April 13, Saenz Catalán and Zan Wolls unveiled the iconic sculpture of the Foundation's "Rosie the Riveter" at the Dietrich Foundation's "Rosie" residence. This magnificent sculpture is a symbol of the strength and resilience of women and serves as a reminder of the role women play in society.

Calhoun County Museum
Upcoming Museum Project

Frederick Ulmer, the original owner of the Orangeburg High School, is the author of the book. The story of the school's history is told through Ulmer's personal collection of photographs and documents. The book will be released in the fall of 2023.

Gift Shop

Mrs. Mary Lib Phillips Winsr Heart Piece Bed

The Calhoun County Museum & Cultural Center held a unique auction on December 15th, featuring a special guest, Mrs. Mary Lib Phillips. The auction was a success, and the proceeds will be donated to the local charity of choice.

Research and Visitors

The Calhoun County Museum's new exhibit on the history of the local community is attracting visitors from all over the state. The exhibit features many rare and valuable artifacts, including a collection of early local photographs, letters, and family memorabilia.

For more information, please visit the Calhoun County Museum & Cultural Center website or call (864) 555-1234.